The R. & D.'s Refrain

To the sunny land of Georgia
We are soon to make a move,
Leave behind us home and comrades,
And Virginia, we dearly love,
May to serious wars of trouble
Cross our peaceful breast,
And Atlanta, the Gate City,
Give us a needed rest.

It knocks the props from under many;
To some it is relief,
Where home and friends are but a choice,
With no time to spend in grief,
May our lines fall in pleasant places
In that bright and famous town,
And everything work smoothly
To the R. & D.'s renown.

CASE DISMISSED.—The famous St. Paul's cathedral reredos case has been dismissed in the Court of Appeals at London with costs against the appellants. This was the appeal of "Altoro and others" against a decision of the Bishop of London, and has been a subject of great interest to churchmen and others since the litigation was commenced in 1888. The question raised was as to the legality of the figures in the reredos, or wall at the back of the altar, of St. Paul's Cathedral, the contention of the appellants being that the sculptured figures of our Saviour and of the Virgin Mary in the reredos were calculated to encourage superstition and to suggest unlawful ideas of devotion. The decision sustains the Bishop, who held that this contention was not well founded and consequently insures the retention of the figures in the reredos.
